Global Presentation Skills with Confidence & Clarity

Course Overview

The overall objective of this training program is to enable the participants to learn how they can present their core message with confidence and clarity to an audience that feels the connection to the speaker and their message. A number of variables can affect the way we are perceived and understood by our audience. The training will effectively enable the participants to identify what those variables are and learn how they can be in control of their message, themselves and even the audience. As a result, the participant is able to deliver a presentation that is a true success, not only for the organization they represent, but on a personal level as well.

Course Objectives

- Ensure participants know and apply the fundamentals of an effective presentation that connects with their audience and conveys their core message clearly
- Assist participants to adjust the way they perceive presentations and ensure they see them as an opportunity and benefit to their career advancement
- Enable participants to present themselves with a confidence that attracts the listener to their message and at the same time stifles their own anxieties
- Empower participants to not only connect with their audience but persuade and motivate them to action
